

At KnowledgePoints we understand that ACT®/SAT® scores are a critical factor in the admissions process for college. More than 1.5 million students take the SAT® and ACT® each year with hopes of getting into the college of their choice. The KnowledgePoints ACT®/SAT® Test Prep program, designed by educators, is tailored for each student to help them reach their goals and confidently send applications to their college of interest. Our program is built upon 19 years of proven results and school-based experience. We utilize a comprehensive method that guides students through the test-taking strategies needed to score big on the test, while also strengthening the academic skills necessary to be successful in college.
